JA Mitsui Leasing, Ltd.

Investment in AG Semiconductor Services, LLC

JA Mitsui Leasing, Ltd. (“JAML”, Head Office: Shinagawa-ku, Tokyo, President & CEO: Yoshinori Yasuda) is pleased to announce that its subsidiary, JA Mitsui Leasing Capital Corporation (“JMCC”, Head Office: New York, New York), made an investment in AG Semiconductor Services, LLC (“AGSS”, Head Office: Stamford, Connecticut, Representative: Joshua Brain).

AGSS is a leading provider of used semiconductor equipment and services. AGSS was established in 2009, but its founders have worked together in predecessor companies since 2001. With in-depth knowledge and experience in the semiconductor industry, AGSS operates in key locations worldwide and manages substantial equipment centers in Europe, Asia and the United States.

Through this transaction, JAML expects to leverage AGSS’s knowledge, insights and connections in the semiconductor industry to expand JAML’s semiconductor equipment financing business. JAML believes that the collaboration with AGSS will enhance JAML’s ability to serve its customers and to meet their needs relating to all facets of financing, acquisition and disposition of semiconductor equipment.
